

AGCI COLOMBIA PARTNERS

Instituto Colombiano de Bienestar Familiar (ICBF):

Colombia's Child Welfare office responsible for the protection and care of 120,000 children across the country.

ICBF Revivir:

A regional ICBF office responsible for assisting children and families in crisis. The center and staff provide 24/7 services for children who need to be removed from parental care and/or placed under ICBF protection due to abuse, homelessness or other crisis factors.

Fundacion Cervicio Juvenil:

A public institution caring for 70-100 girls ages 8-18 who are living under ICBF protection or in adoptability (legally declared eligible for adoption). Children may live in the institution for a period of months or years depending on the circumstances surrounding their case. reunified or age out of the system.

Amor Por Colombia:

A public institution caring for 60 children ages 8-21. With no alternative housing option, several youth in the institution who have grown up in the ICBF system live side by side younger peers while they attend public universities in Bogota.

Los Pisingos:

A local NGO, partnering with AGCI to provide therapeutic services and counseling for children from low income families who struggle with a learning disability or difficult behaviors. Through parenting classes and community outreach, they address the root issues that cause families to dissolve. Instead, they strengthen those families so that children never have to enter ICBF protection or institutional care.

Casa de la Madre y el Nino (La Casa):

AGCI's partner home in Colombia. La Casa has provided exceptional care for over 100 children ages 0-13 for 75 years. Every child at the home has an advocacy team working around the clock to find them permanency through intercountry adoption, domestic adoption or foster care. The La Casa team are also partnering with AGCI to launch the very first Dream Home in Bogota for youth ages 18-25.

The Dream Home (Casa Suenos):

Future home for youth ages 18-25 who have grown up under the ICBF system. The home will provide a family-like environment, adult mentorship and independent life skills for orphans who are completing higher education.

Monica Bustos:

ICBF Secretary of the Adoptions Committee of Regional Cundinamarca

Diana Serpa:

Wife of the Procuraduria General de la Nacion Fernando Carillo and honorary director of the future Casa Suenas (Dream Home).

Lorena Vargas Escobar:

Operating director of Casa de La Madre Y El Nino (La Casa).

Ana Maria Fernandez:

AGCI's Child Advocacy Director in Colombia and Legal Representative for AGCI adoptions in Colombia.